CLUB MEETINGS 2010

SEPTEMBER 29 OCTOBER 27 DECEMBER 1

Hello Cruisers,

It's been a great summer thus far. Friday Night Cruises are going well and we have had a lot of encouraging comments on the raffles, thanks for all of your participation. The Club Picnic was a great day, weather was beautiful and the food was wonderful. There was around 80 attending.

The Swap Meet/Flea Market is approaching fast, Oct. 16th. Please put the word out and hope to see all of you there.

Keith and his Committee are working hard on the Veterans Day Show to be held Nov. 7th. This is our biggest event of the year and a very special event to honor our Veterans. I hope to see everyone there to support our Club and Veterans.

Safe Cruising & Thanks,
Rick 443-829-5658

Cumberland 2010

This year we went up Thursday so we could go to Cruisin Main Street Frostburg. The streets were full of cars parked in front of the businesses. The Western Round-up in Cumberland was great. Thanks to Doug and Eileen Prinkey we had an awesome camp site and we lacked for nothing. We cooked all our meals and had great bonfires at night. Doug brought along his moonshine and corn cob pipe. Mollie Boyd made some new friends with a Mansion on wheels, along with Rick & Janet Woolridge & Krista, Tom & Diane Pattan, Dave & Linda Williams and Jim and Margaret Pfaff. Also at the show was Mike & Marie Higgins, Bob Sexton, Kenny Provenson & Debbie & Jimmy Mathews. We have 10 rooms on hold for 2011, see Rick.
